

ASIAN CONTEMPORARY ART WEEK 2013 MARCH 1 – JUNE 15

Asian Contemporary Art Week (ACAW)

March 1—June 15, 2013

<http://www.acaw.info/>

Extending beyond its usual format, the eighth edition of Asian Contemporary Art Week, (ACAW), encompasses the entire spring season to capture exceptional Asia-specific programs organized by consortium member institutions and collaborators across New York City. Once again, we are proud to bring attention to the works and activities of artists, curators, museums, galleries, and educators coming together to examine contemporary art practices throughout Asia, with a special focus on Southeast Asia this year.

Don't miss the numerous exhibitions, film screenings, artist conversations, open studios and more!

UPCOMING EXHIBITIONS / PROGRAMS

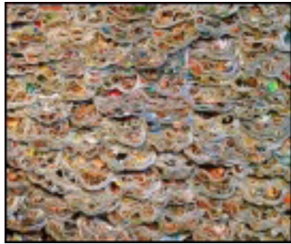

May 2 Open Studios

Bose Pacia | Transparent Studio: Tith Kanitha and Yim Maline

May 3, 10, and 17 Screening

Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum | Century of Birthing

May 29 – July 19

Gallery Korea | Plastic Memory 10022

May 30 – June 28

Taipei Cultural Center NY | Design-In

EXHIBITIONS / PROGRAMS ON VIEW NOW

Through May 8

Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum | Gutai: Splendid Playground

Through May 17

Gallery Korea | Coloring Time— An Exhibition from the Archive of Korean-American Artists, 1955–1989: Part One

Through May 22

Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum | No Country: Contemporary Art for South & Southeast Asia

Through June 14

Tyler Rollins Fine Art | Reliefs: Sopheap Pich

Through June 16

*The Metropolitan Museum of Art | Cambodian Rattan: Sopheap Pich
Sculptures*

Consortium Members / Institutions

Asia Society Museum / Bose Pacia / China Institute / Japan Society /

The Museum of Modern Art / Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum / Tyler Rollins Fine Art /

Korean Cultural Service (Gallery Korea) / Taipei Cultural Center

Most programs are free to the public and some require advance booking

For more information and a complete schedule of events, visit <http://www.acaw.info/>

ACAW is an initiative of Asian Contemporary Art Consortium and Asia Society

